Gothic-Vampire Party

Gosh! What a surprise!

Once more the black-clad PVC weenies of Angst venture forth to darken dance floors at the annual KAOS Gothic-Vampire party. The origins of this event are lost in the mists of time, or less prosaically in the bottom of an ash tray filled with cigarette butts, the dregs of red wine, and those little chunky salsa bits that line the interior walls of your stomach. So whether its glitter or gloom, have fun, and get home before sunrise.

...I want to be a vampire! I want to suck girl's blood! That is my ambition! ...

MURPHY LIVES!

Lack of eyewitness confirmation casts doubt!

Recent electronic correspondence leads the Daily Illuminator to believe that former KAOS member, one time UCSA Executive Officer, founding Co-father of The New Church of the Great Old Ones, and long time fugitive from the forces of Justice in two different countries, Mr. S. D. Murphy is still alive and living somewhere on the West Coast of the North American continent. The cryptic message "Isn't it amazing what you can find on the web" was received by Agent Sloth last week. I guess you can file this one under the "Who Cares?" Department.

Express your angst!
Make it rhyme!

Are Goths Extinct?

About time too!

Recently fabricated statistics show that KAOS is losing Goths at a rapid rate, with no sign of replenishment from the ranks of the proletariat. Greeted with dismay by DJs for tonight's party "Who will dance to Specimen these days?", but with renewed shouts of "Faggot!" from some guy in a car that passed me on Thursday with the license plate NM 7218.

A severe lack of basic Gothic knowledge in new students is blamed. One bitter-goth said of a recent encounter "She asked if I was trying to look like Marilyn Manson, and I said no, more like Adam Ant, and she looked at me with this blank expression on her face."

What we really need is a pogrom to weed out the redneck gene from the populace, this coupled with the anticipated change in abortion regulations to allow post-natal procedures and liberal applications of fuel-air explosives will enable us to make Christchurch a city that Goths and cockroaches will be proud to infest once more.

An exit poll conducted among the black socks in this reporters last load of washing has led him to conclude that this entire debate is nothing more than a space filling exercise. Next week: Is Bela Lugois dead, or is he just really good at holding his breath?

Quote-Book Lost In LCR!

And there was much gnashing of teeth!

The young KAOS Agents of today just don't know how to treat confidential information. I mean anyone could have picked up that notebook and learned what Sarah (Fluffy) said about Michael (Schmoo). There are some Secrets that the world does not need to know! There are some Truths that do not need to be told! There are some Mysteries that do not need to be revealed!

...The Daily Illuminator, you say everything you know, we know everything you say...

Fortunately the Quote Book was recovered by an Elder of the Tribe and promptly dissected at an informal council meeting of the Black Household. Compared to the Original Quote Book, which in its Greek edition is worth 2D8 SAN loss and a +12% KAOS Mythos Knowledge, this quote book is worth a mere 1D2 SAN loss and an inconsequential +1% KAOS Mythos Knowledge.

SORAYAMA

PIN-UP #45

This is just a picture of a chick with a gun.

What do you mean, no one invited us to the 48 hour party?

UCSA ELECTIONS

An Old World Order

Once again KAOS agents continue to infiltrate the UCSA Executive. Martin Ell and Dillon Burke are both seeking re-election to the Executive, and Oleg Vornik, a first year who really understands the meaning of the word Politburo, has also thrown his trenchcoat into the ring.

...Remember, if you can't say Fuck then you can't say Fuck the government...

Also of note is the continuation of the fine tradition where members of KAOS run the elections, slowly transferring the election budget into their own pockets. Remember what Georges Clemenceau said "There is no passion like that of a functionary for his function." Mind you, I do find it hard to think of Trond Nilsen and Brian O'Sullivan as passionate individuals. Robyn Guy on the other hand was quite vehement that Zane was not a duty that would be delegated to her minions.

1999 48 Hour Party

The 1999 48 Hour Party will be held on the weekend of 27-29 August at (location). KAOS Agents from Victoria, Massey, and Auckland are expected to be in attendance. A full timetable of events will be circulated electronically before the party, and in hard copy on the Friday night. Among the planned activities are a multi-campus killing round, pacifist warfare, mass photo shoot, the werewolf game, a peoples court, and a scavenger hunt. And lots of drinking!
