

THE DAILY ILLUMINATOR :
SPECIAL EDITION!

WHO WILL BE DICTATOR?

Once again the question vexing the incumbent Dictator, other than what new clothes to put on, must be the eternal problem of succession: which individual will be plucked from the proletariat to be anointed with the sacred oils and unguents, doused with overproof rum and then set on fire.

Sarah Shaw is widely tipped to be a contender again. Always a hot favourite in some quarters: "It could be a case of third time lucky, or maybe she has just been playing hard to get." However as a member of the aristocracy in a galaxy far, far away, put it : "Isn't she a little short to be a stormtrooper?"

Also expected on the list of people voted most likely to emigrate if offered the job is Teri Carmen "Christchurch is a cold freezing hole, I'm off to Sydney!"

The real contender is of course, Elvis. Industry outsiders refuse to speculate on the strange choice of a comeback launch at a KAOS party. As Richard Nixon, recently appointed Commander of the IX Legion of Hell, observed: "Being dead is no longer a disadvantage in job interviews."

A nameless PR flunkey was ecstatic about the latest outburst of political necrophilia: "It's a great career move, the King in tight white trousers, jackboots and a rhinestone encrusted trenchcoat – the fans will go wild!"

Whichever fortunate fool does get to wear the tinsel crown of Dictatorship will have the onerous task of organising the XXth Anniversary Celebrations.

TOOTHFISH THESIS NEARS COMPLETION

Still bleary-eyed from the stamp-licking mines of Venus Dillon Burke reports the completion of two draft chapters for this PhD Thesis; just in time for the UCSA Stein. "It's a wonderful thing to be a global expert in an extinct species."

Nixon and Elvis plot their takeover of KAOS

FLATMATE WANTED

The occupants at 102 Clyde Road are looking for a flatmate. The main advantage of the flat is its close proximity to University – five minutes walk to the Engineering School. Convenient to bus routes, services, and most KAOS party venues.

Rent is $75 per week, plus expenses (about another $32 pw). Prospective tenants should be toilet trained and able to fend for themselves. Ph: 351-2331.

THE WORD OF GOD

Today's random bible quotation is Isaiah 24:18 "And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open and the foundations of the earth do shake."

And I think there is something in that for all of us. Definitely worth quoting if noise control turn up. [REDACTED] Did you know that the word fnoord does not appear on this page?

Disclaimer: All quotations are fictional except the ones that have been plagiarised and/or lip-synced along with God. This document has been written for entertainment purposes only. Except for the subliminal messages. Order your Angels T-shirt today.